PART 1 "Nigun Atik" hold to start

PART 2

*Direction of yemenite varies! If repeating Part 2, then it tends to be sideways, facing centre, but if going on to Part 1, it tends to be diagonal and end →→.

SEQUENCE: PART 1 x 2, PART 2 x 2 EXCEPT first time through when Part 2 is once only.

NB - music slows down towards end of dance on Part 2 repeat. Do same steps, but slower.

DAVID MELECH YISRAEL DAVID KING OF ISRAEL

David Melech Yisrael
k'shehayah ro'eh yashav al sefa vechilel do re mi fa mi fa re

David the king of Israel who when he was (still) a shepherd sat on a rock and played the flute
do re mi fa mi fa re

Vehag'daim vehaseiot izim vegam k'vasim pa'u me-me-me-me-me-me eizeh nigun mak'sim

And the baby-goats and the baby-sheep she-goats and the sheep bleated me-me-me-me-me-me what a magical tune

Nimla olam befeiyot shel hagda'im vehaseiot shel hak'vasim veharechelot bayamim uvaleilot

The world was filled with bleating of the baby-goats and the baby-
sheep
of the sheep and the ewes by day and night

David hini'ach chalilo beshir shaket natan kolo lu lu lu lu lu lu vechulam nirdemu

David put down his flute with a silent song he sounded his voice
lu lu lu lu lu lu
and everyone fell asleep.
