Notnim lanu od rega sh'nohav.

IT'S ALREADY AFTER MIDNIGHT

It's already after midnight
they haven't yet turned off the moon.
Because before "lights out"
star lights,
they give another small moment to lovers.

Chorus

Tomorrow it will be another day
And what can you expect from a new day?
So gives us a moment,
just a moment,
even though it's already after midnight.

It's already after midnight
They haven't turned on the morning yet Because before they clean yesterday from the streets
they give us another tiny moment for love.

Chorus

Tomorrow it will be another day

It's already after midnight
They haven't turned the sun on yet Because before they deliver the newspaper and the milk
They give us another moment for loving.
