

LIVING IN A GHOST TOWN

CHOREOGRAPHY: Joyce McAndrew

MUSIC: The Rolling Stones Living In A Ghost Town single – available on iTunes

The Royal Ballet had posted a film on YouTube using the song and I suggested we should dance it in our weekly virtual dancing. I thought the song was just right for the current times and so decided to put a little dance together for it rather than expect everyone to do the pirouettes.

FORMATION: Open Circle in V hold to start

INTRODUCTION: Start after 8 bars, just as singing commences – start on the word 'Ghost'

RHYTHM: 4/4

STEPS <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nnJeeVoksGE>

Part B of the dance is unjoined with arms gently swinging across body in the grapevines – R arm on first two beats, left on second two beats in the bar

2. In four quick steps grapevine step to the left starting on R foot (R cross in front, side L, R cross behind, side L). Repeat
3. All slow steps - Step forward on the R, close with the L (R arm forward in front of body), step back on R, close with L (L arm forward in front of body)
4. One grapevine to the left with 4 quick steps starting on R foot (R cross in front, side L, R cross behind, side L)
5. Repeat line 3
6. Repeat line 4
