

Plantas Sagradas - Sacred plants

Walking through the jungle
Following the beauty
Following the songs of the plants
Walking through the jungle
Following the beauty
Following the songs of the plants
Feel alive
Feel in peace
I feel the power of the mother
I feel the sacred plants
Feel alive
Feel in peace
I feel the power of the mother
I feel the sacred plants
Always respectful
Always thanking
By this power this beauty
Always respectful
Always thanking
By this power this beauty
Feel alive
Feel at peace
I feel the power of the mother
Feel alive
Feel at peace
I feel the power of the mother
I feel the sacred plants
I feel the sacred plants

Danit Treubig's music is mainly inspired by nature. These songs are an expression of love and gratitude for mother earth, all plants and magical animals that live in its beauty and the elements that make life possible. Music is an invitation to connect with that mysterious place of prayer, where the chaotic movements of thought settle in a simple gratitude for life and this ever present moment.
